

☆Support Our Fighting Entrepreneurs!☆

Misguided do-gooder liberals are trying to make our corporations in Iraq accountable to law. Before you buy into their fuzzy reasoning, learn the facts!

Privatizing Torture Saves Lives!

US military personnel are held accountable for their crimes in hearings and courts martial, which can be damaging to our image and are sensationalized in the media. Private contractors are immune to Iraqi law or to any other jurisdiction (L. Paul Bremer's order #17, June 27, 2003), including U.S. military and civilian courts! They are even immune to Freedom of Information Act requests, so the liberal media and the American public need never know what they are paying for. And what you don't know about can't upset you. Hearings in Congress about abuses put the lives of our soldiers and mercenaries at risk! Privatizing saves lives!

Coalition Provisional Authority Regulations:
<http://www.cpa-iraq.org/regulations/index.html#Orders>

Privatizing Torture is Good for the Economy!

If we don't let CACI and other U.S. corporations participate in torture, these jobs will only be shipped to Jordan, Syria, and other foreign competitors. The U.S. has already shipped several suspects to these countries because of their more progressive attitudes towards interrogations. Halliburton and other companies outsource many jobs in Iraq to imported Indian workers who work for $150 a month. There are thousands of contract fighters from Chile and South Africa on the payroll in Iraq. With the exception of the Peoples Republic of China, no one knows more about running prisons than U.S. corporations, who have had astonishing success privatizing the corrections industry. Don't outsource the ENTIRE war on terrorism! Keep torture jobs at home!

Miami Herald May. 23, 2004 "South African soldiers help keep Iraq secure"
<http://www.miami.com/mld/miamiherald/2004/05/23/news/world/8735111.htm>
The New York Times May 7th, 2004 "Indian Contract Workers in Iraq Complain of Exploitation"
<http://www.occupationwatch.org/article.php?id=4645>

Privatizing the War Saves You Money!

Your tax dollars have to pay out death benefits of between $7,000-$10,000 for all military personnel, but NOT for dead or wounded contractors. In fact, the government doesn't even waste your money by keeping a list of its contractors in Iraq, or the number of them that have been killed! KBR (a subsidiary of Halliburton) reported 40 dead, Titian reported 20. Estimates range between 200-400 dead total. Have you heard any estimates about the wounded? The point is that there is no official number that would upset whining peaceniks http://www.indymedia.ie/newswire.php?story_id=64853

Privatizing is Good for the War on Terrorism

It just makes sense to contract out certain mundane, one-time-only tasks to efficient, private industry. Training soldiers in Arabic takes time, and then the soldiers would be on our payroll for years, costing us as much as $25K a year! Will our Army still need Arabic speakers a few years down the road? What a waste! Contracts require that Halliburton sends convoys of empty trucks back and forth across Iraq, at taxpayer expense. Imagine how the U.S. armed forces would louse up that operation, and no one would profit from it! Would anyone trust the Army corps of engineers to build dams, irrigation tunnels, or power plants here in the United States?

"Trucks made to drive without cargo in dangerous areas of Iraq"
by Seth Borenstein Knight-Ridder News May 21st, 2004
<http://www.occupationwatch.org/article.php?id=4938>
<http://www.sunherald.com/mld/sunherald/news/politics/8726376.htm>

How → YOU ← Can Help

- ☒ Call your Senators and Representative in Congress and ask them to stop HR 4390, which would make military contractors and their employees abroad legally accountable for their actions! That's UN-AMERICAN!
- ☒ Call CACI and thank them personally for all their efforts on our behalf. They need your support, now more than ever! Contact Jody Brown, Senior VP, (703) 841-7801, jbrown@caci.com
- ☒ Join Billionaires for Bush! Support our president, no matter what! Nowadays politics are too important to leave to our maids and manservants! Contact DC chapter leader Ivan Tital at ivan.tital@billionairesforbush.com

www.billionairesforbush.com

